SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Based upon the nature of the instant offense and to afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct and protect the public from further crimes (18 USC § 3553(a)(2)(B) and (C)), the term of supervised release shall be non-reporting if the defendant is deported, removed, or voluntarily leaves the United States.

Based upon the nature of the instant offense and to afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct and protect the public from further crimes (18 USC § 3553(a)(2)(B) and (C)), upon removal, deportation, or voluntary departure from the United States, the defendant shall not re-enter the United States illegally and shall obtain the express written permission and approval of the United States Attorney General, his successor, or the designee of the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security as a condition of re-entry. The defendant shall not illegally remain in the United States following an order of deportation or removal.

Based upon the nature of the instant offense and to afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct and protect the public from further crimes (18 USC § 3553(a)(2)(B) and (C)), if the defendant re-enters the United States either legally or illegally, the defendant will report to the nearest United States Probation Office within 72 hours of re-entry. If the defendant is not deported or is released on a bond by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, the defendant shall report as directed to the United States Probation Office.

While any financial penalties are outstanding (corrective treatment/satisfaction of sentence-18 USC § 3553(a)(2)(D)), the defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

Based upon the nature and circumstances of the offense (false statements during purchase of firearms) and to afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct and protect the public from further crimes (18 USC § 3553(a)(2)(B) and (C)), the defendant shall submit their person, residence, real property, place of business, vehicle, and any other property under the defendant's control to a search, conducted by any United States Probation Officer and such other law enforcement personnel as the probation officer may deem advisable and at the direction of the United States Probation Officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release, without a warrant. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises and other property under the defendant's control may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.
